

I like being free from telemarketers phone calls. Calls which come at all times of the day and evening. It should be left as it is and let those of us who use the Do Not Call List as a way of preventing these calls from invading our lives our choice. All others are free to not join the list and continue to get the calls.